A Meaningful Visit from Magnit Leadership Alyssa Brooks

We recently had the pleasure of hosting Alyssa Brooks, Senior Vice President at Magnit, during her visit to India. Alyssa has been closely associated with Tekwissen's engagement with Toyota in the United States for many years, making this visit particularly special for our team.

During her time in Bengaluru, our team welcomed Alyssa to our headquarters and gave her a tour of the office. She was particularly impressed with the thoughtful design of the workspace and appreciated how intentionally the office has been built with employee experience and collaboration in mind. In fact, she found several corners of the office conceptually fascinating and captured multiple photographs throughout the tour.

The visit also gave us an opportunity to spend time together outside the office. Over dinner, Alyssa enjoyed a variety of Indian snacks and we had a warm and engaging conversation about our ongoing collaboration. She shared valuable perspectives from her experience working with Toyota in the United States and spoke about Magnit's vision to continue strengthening the team supporting Toyota's initiatives.

The discussion also focused on how our teams can further deepen the partnership between Tekwissen and Magnit to drive continued success for Toyota. The evening concluded on a very positive note, reflecting the strong relationship and shared commitment between our organizations.

As a token of our appreciation for her visit, we presented Alyssa with a small gift along with a suitcase. She was truly touched by the gesture and expressed how warmly welcomed she felt throughout her visit.

We sincerely appreciate Alyssa taking the time to visit us and look forward to continuing to strengthen the partnership between Tekwissen, Magnit, and Toyota.

More than just a picture, it represents a journey—of silent strength, deep affection, and the values that shape who we become.
